PERMISSION LETTER

To

Whom It May Concern

Subject: Permission to Develop a Website for House of ~~Homemade~~ Handmade

I, Nandini Khatri, owner of House of ~~Homemade~~ Handmade, a small business dealing in bouquets, desserts, and handmade gifts, hereby grant permission to Jaislin Kotwani and Bhumi Pundhir to design and develop a website for my business as part of their hackathon project.

I understand that the website is being developed for project and demonstration purposes, with the objective of showcasing our products, improving our online presence, and presenting our business information in a structured and creative manner.

I have no objection to the use of the business name, relevant product images, logo, and other business-related information for the development and presentation of this website, subject to mutual understanding and the appropriate use of such materials.

This letter serves as confirmation of my consent and authorization for the above-mentioned project.

Thank you.

Yours sincerely,
